

Women's Soccer falls to Central Methodist 6-0

Central Methodist University scored three goals in each half to defeat Blackburn College, 6-0 on Wednesday in Carlinville. The Eagles got on the board at the 12:01 mark on an unassisted goal by Mo Walsh. Samantha Baldi added the next two goals the 1st on an assist from Kennedy Seifert. The second goal by Baldi was unassisted.

In the 2nd half, Shawn Beard, Seifert, and Kate Fulton all scored goals with Liz Robb assisting on two of them.

Central Methodist controlled the action throughout and outshot Blackburn 63-0.

Blackburn is now 0-1 on the season, while Central Methodist is 1-0. The Beavers return to action at home on Saturday, September 5th in an 11 a.m. tilt against Whittier College of Whittier, California.

9/3/09