

Affidavit Of Financial Support For Sponsors

Students interested in studying in the U.S. with F-1 visa status must demonstrate the ability to afford all educational and living expenses during the entire duration of stay. Funds totaling a minimum of $22,075 U.S. dollars must be immediately available to cover expenses for the first year. Parents, relatives, friends, or government agencies may sponsor international students. Sponsors are required to complete this form and submit bank statements or other financial documents to assess their ability to pay.

All documents must be originals.

AFFIRMATION OF OATH:

I will contribute $ _____ USD each year towards the educational expenses for the duration of stay for the above-mentioned student. I affirm that all of the information provided on this form is true and correct.

By completing this form, you are certifying to Blackburn College and the United States government that you are committed to providing monetary assistance for every year the student is studying at the institution. Please be advised that the cost of living expenses, books, tuition and fees are subject to annual increases. Failing to provide the promised support may put the student's academic future at risk. Sponsors should not expect the student to be able to provide their own support by working, as immigration rules and regulations prohibit international students from working without permission, which is granted on a very limited basis.
