Questions to Ask Employers

Remember to ask open ended questions and research the company or organization prior to the interview

- What qualities does the ideal candidate possess?
- What is the timeline for making a decision about this position?
- What are the next steps in the interview process?
- What are my responsibilities?
- What opportunities does your company provide for professional growth and development?
- What type of training opportunities does your company provide?
- Why is this position open?
- What are the opportunities for advancement?
- How does your company show value to their employees?
- What are the best attributes to this organization?
- Describe a typical day.
- Describe the successful employee.
- Where do you see your company in 5 years?
- What are the career paths for your department?
- Tell me about the employee evaluation process.
- What are your relocation policies?