

ACADEMICS

OFFICE/AREA: BIOLOGY

POSITION: VIVARIUM WORKER

FACULTY SUPERVISOR: DR. MICANCIN

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES:

- General care of terrestrial and aquatic animals including, but not limited to, feeding and watering, cleaning of enclosures, identifying and treating of disease or deterioration, and socialization
- Designing and building of animal enclosures and other displays
- On-campus community outreach and communication
- Facilities and equipment care including, but not limited to, cleaning and maintenance of the Vivarium, Ecology lab, storage/prep areas, and contents of these spaces
- Potentially perform off-campus community-outreach and communication
- Potentially contribute to organization of events including Science Day
- Potentially perform the same duties as a Faculty/Lab Assistant
- Potentially contribute to research and other projects

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Major and/or outstanding skills in a field related to the goals of the Vivarium such as Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Studies, Education, Business, Art, etc.
- Cannot be on academic, work or social probation
- Good communication, organization, and teamwork skills
- Previous experience with animals strongly preferred